Commencement Help Needed

On Friday, June 8 over 300 Fuller students will receive their diplomas (well, actually just diploma covers) in front of an audience of 2,500 at the First Church of the Nazarene in Pasadena. Earlier that day, there will be class photographs, a buffet dinner, and a faculty-graduate communion service. For all these and other related events, we need help--people right out front, helping our graduates and their families and friends, and people behind the scenes, preparing the way and making things work smoothly (or at least just making them work!). We need:

Line Assistants

Fourteen people are needed to help organize the lineup of faculty and graduates (to help ensure that the right person appears on stage when the Dean calls a name!). There will be two hours of training (paid, of course) and six or eight hours of work on Commencement Day.

Ushers

About twenty people are needed to serve as ushers during the Commencement ceremony. This involves one hour of training (paid) and about four hours work on Commencement Day. Diplomatic, smiling folks are needed for this job!

Regalia Distribution

Four people are needed to work during the three weeks prior to Commencement handing out caps, gowns, and hoods to graduates. You can work from eight to over twenty hours over these three weeks, and the schedule is flexible.

Regalia Collection

Nine people are needed to help collect regalia after the Commencement ceremony and return it to campus.

Child Care

This is one of the best-paying jobs available on Commencement Day (I wonder why?). From 10 to 20 people are needed to take care of the children of our graduates on Commencement Day, at the facilities of the First Church of the Nazarene in Pasadena. You can work one or both of two 3 1/2 hour shifts. If you love children, this job is for you!

General Assistance

From ten to fifteen people are needed to transport equipment and materials, run errands, and take care of all those annoying last-minute details on Commencement Day. There will also be some work available on an irregular basis throughout the Spring quarter.

This is a great opportunity to contribute to a worthy cause (your bank account) and at the same time help make this day special for your fellow students who are (finally) graduating. In some cases--depending on the hours involved--you can work more than one job.

Detailed job descriptions, pay scales and applications are available in the Payton Hall lobby (near the switchboard). Interviews will begin right away.

CAREER PLANNING SEMINAR

This four-session seminar deals with the following questions: What are my skills and how do I identify them? How do I find the kind of work that best uses my skills? How do I decide between two or three choices? These questions are approached from a Christian framework. The seminar is for people interested in examining or re-examining career choices, and for those who work with others asking these same questions.

RESUME WRITING SEMINAR

Resume writing is not a mystery. There are several basic "how-to's", and plenty of room for individuality. This one-hour seminar provides guidelines for several types of resumes, as well as cover letters. It also provides tips on the best use of resumes.

INTERVIEWING SEMINAR

For people beginning the interview process for jobs, or for internships, this one-hour seminar covers format and suggestions for how to get the best out of an interview; learn what you want to know, and present yourself in the ways you are happiest with.

INTERVIEWING REHEARSAL

Interviewing is like giving a speech: you present information best when you are practiced. Sign-up for an hour of interview practice, with feedback and suggestions included.

LEADERSHIP STYLE ASSESSMENT

A two-hour workshop which uses the Personal Profile Assessment to answer questions about your leadership style; how you work best as a team member; what your motivational patterns are; how to work with those whose communication style and motivations are different from your own.

GOD COMMUNITY

Covenant Community — at FULLER —

What is a Covenant Community?

A Covenant Community is a group of people who choose to draw closer to each other in Christ (see the sample Covenant on the back). It is

*Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers (and sisters)
to dwell together in unity! (Ps. 133:1)*

not a convenient living arrangement or a way of economizing on housing costs, but rather an intentional investment of oneself in the lives of brothers and sisters in Christ. Although the central issue is the Lordship of Christ in a gathered community of Christians, other areas of focus can be service, social concerns, alternative lifestyles, and other issues.

Where does Covenant Community happen?

There are two basic models for Covenant Community here at Fuller:

- 1) the community style in which Christians live in a house, sharing all facilities like a "family";
- 2) the community style in which Christians living in the same apartment building come together on a regular basis as designed in their Covenant statement.

What will it cost me to be involved?

Financially, it costs no more than the usual amount for rent and board. In terms of time and emotional investment, it requires a bit more than simply living in an apartment building or shared house. The rewards, needless to say, can be great.

When will Covenant Communities start?

The time of planning and committing to the Communities begins NOW, during Spring Quarter 1984. The Communities will actually begin Fall Quarter 1984, unless other arrangements are made.

Why should I care?

Christianity has ever been a faith of the people, not simply of persons. Isolation, alienation and despair are characteristics of a society splintered by greed, egocentricity and fear. In Christian community we can attempt to live and experience comfort and confrontation, hearing and being heard, encouragement and correction under the Lordship of Christ and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Perhaps we may even be able to create a community of which it is said, "Behold how they love one another!"

What if I have never done this before?

Representatives and staff from the Housing Office, the OCC and the OSC who have experienced living in community are ready to help you think out your covenant, get organized and get started. They are also committed to remain ready to accompany you along the way.

HOW DO I FIND OUT MORE?

COME TO: PAYTON 101 ON MONDAY, APRIL 2
AT 6:30 PM

FOR AN INFORMATIONAL, CONVERSATIONAL
MEETING TO DISCUSS COVENANT COMMUNITIES.

SAMPLE COVENANT for Covenant Communities

Believing that it is good and pleasant for brothers and sisters to dwell together in unity, we covenant with each other and before God to create and nurture together a community of love and trust characterized by shared concern and regular gatherings for food, recreation, prayer and study to foster mutual encouragement and edification, and personal growth. We will celebrate the inauguration of our covenant and remember it in solemn and joyful gatherings.

We willingly accept the limitations on personal freedom which this will entail, because of the good we see in Christian community.

Because we prize Christian community we will consult with representatives of OSC and OCC for assistance in beginning and nurturing our community. With God's help and our good wills we intend and hope to discover new things about faith, hope and love in Christ Jesus our Saviour and Lord.

To these ends we will meet for:

- A. Prayer and Study:
- B. Common Meals:
- C. Recreation:
- D. Service to the community-at-large:
- E. Celebration of our Community (re-affirmation of identity and purpose):
- F. Other:

Recognizing that there are times and seasons for all things, we covenant to love and support one another in the events and moments of separation. That is, by God's grace we determine that there shall grow up between us no root of bitterness in the event of separation resulting from fundamental disagreements and we shall celebrate with hope the futures of those who go out from our community into new things. In this we shall be responsible to our landlords and fulfill our legal obligations.

The community shall determine how others may enter into covenant with us.
